
Part of the NJ Attorney General's
21-COUNTY COMMUNITY POLICING PROJECT
BRIDGE THE GAP

The Sussex County Prosecutor will be hosting a public meeting

April 19 at 7 pm

at Sussex County Community College

Student Center Theater

One College Hill Rd, Newton, NJ

This meeting will held be to discuss the policies and procedures regarding the investigation and review of use of force incidents and officer involved shootings.

LET'S WORK TOGETHER TO MAKE OUR COMMUNITY THE BEST IT CAN BE!

Community policing fosters relationships of collaboration, trust, and understanding between law enforcement agencies and the communities. Law enforcement agencies acting alone can rarely solve the difficult public safety problems facing communities in today's world. Only with meaningful public support and engagement can law enforcement agencies begin to confront these complex issues and effectively protect and serve the public.

This event is free and open to the community.
